

LAKE HARBOR UMC's Harbor Light

Welcoming all...Empowered by Christ...Sent forth to serve

Volume 18.8 August 2018

Our HOT TOPICS series in July was both a challenge and blessing! Thank you for your encouragement and engagement around issues that are both important and difficult in our life together. Taking time to look at issues from a faith perspective is vital and is a part of our witness to the world. That doesn't mean we'll all agree all the time, but I'm deeply grateful to be able to encourage thoughtful, respectful dialogue.

As we went through the series, I found myself noticing more about each issue as the listened to people talk about their daily lives. There's some much to consider around health care, racism, sexuality, and creation care. Our Social Principles help us to engage issues theologically, and you can find them online at:

<http://www.umc.org/what-we-believe/social-principles-social-creed>

A few people have asked me about specific issues, and you'll be able to find them there. Please let me know if you need more information.

As I mentioned when we focused on sexuality, there are many facets to the discussion. You may know that our larger UMC is in the midst of looking closely at specific issues around human sexuality, and there will be a special General Conference in February 2019.

This was the result of an appeal to the Council of Bishops to advise the General Conference after 2016. A Commission was created to consider "a way forward" particularly around issues of human sexuality.

It's important that we understand the larger discussion and know the potential outcomes. In the coming weeks, we'll have small group opportunities to gather together and talk about the issues. I encourage you to do some reading and listening beginning with a video that was created for our Michigan Area as a way to both model and start dialogue. You can find it at: <http://news.michiganumc.org/2017/12/join-dialog-human-sexuality/>

I continue to be helped by a phrase that Bishop Bard uses: we're living in a "tender time." Many of you have experienced other "tender times" over many years, and yet, the phrase is powerful. May we live together in grace and peace, and love God and neighbor well.

See you on Sunday,

Pastor Mary

Rev. Dr. Margie Crawford is our District Superintendent for the newly-formed Midwest District. Please pray for her as she leads and guides our area churches as a part of our larger Michigan

Conference. And mark your calendars for Sunday, November 11. We'll host a cluster Charge Conference at Lake Harbor UMC with five other area churches.

We'll celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Baptism on Sunday, August 12. If you're interested in learning more about baptism for yourself or your child(ren), please contact Pastor Mary at 231-798-2181 or Pastor@LakeHarborUMC.org

August Worship News by Karen Booth & Vicki Zuker

“Psalms for the Soul”

The psalms have inspired prayer and reflection for centuries and are deeply personal and poetic. Martin Luther called the Psalms “a little Bible.” John Wesley said, “this book brings us into the sanctuary, draws us off from converse with men [and women], with the philosophers or disputers of this world, and directs us into communion with God.”

When we think of Scripture, Psalm 23 is one of the most well-known passages in the Bible. It brings comfort and peace to people. But there are many types of psalms - not all of them comfortable or peaceful, but still intended for use in worship. We'll explore them and their place in our lives and our worship today.

August 5, 2018: “Come on, Get Happy”

Scripture: Psalm 1

Synopsis: “Happy” in the psalms carries a much different meaning than we’re used to today. What does it mean to find true happiness in God?

August 12, 2018: “Ready to Praise”

Scripture: Psalm 34

Synopsis: It’s easy to focus on bringing God a list of needs and wants rather than beginning with intentional praise for God’s faithfulness. How can praise remind us of God “from whom all blessings flow” and transform our attitudes and actions?

August 19, 2018: “Laid Bare”

Scripture: Psalm 143

Synopsis: We’ve lost the power of lament in our lives, but the psalms are full of expressions of grief and sorrow – both for individuals and for communities. How can we open our hearts fully to God and offer the deep pain we feel because of our own sin and broken world?

August 26, 2018: “Honest to God”

Scripture: Psalm 137

Synopsis: Sometimes we’re surprised by what we read in Scripture, especially when it expresses feeling we’d rather deny like jealousy or revenge. How do we navigate the tension of coming to God in honest prayer and allowing God to judge those we consider enemies?

Worship Connections Team meetings are open to everyone. Karen Booth leads this team which usually meets Mondays at 2:00 pm (or 1:00 pm if we have work session). The team includes people who attend and plan for both worship services. Please contact Karen (798-8431 or kwbooth@comcast.net) for details. You are invited to join worship team members on Sunday, August 5 at 10:15 am for the last session of “Let’s Talk” in the classroom across from the lounge. The team would love to hear from you. What are the struggles, challenges, curiosities, and desires of church members and neighbors? What do you talk about with your co-workers, golf buddies, lunch friends, kids; friends’ parents, etc.? What topics do you avoid? Do you have ideas for upcoming message series, want to like to attend a FALL PLANNING RETREAT, have questions, or just want to listen? If you are not interested in participating, but have an idea to contribute, just jot it on a 3" x 5" card and give it to one of the worship team members or drop it in the worship mailbox. More information about the retreat can be found on our website at <http://lakeharborumc.org/2018/07/worship-planning-retreat-september-2018/>.

Radical Hospitality

We know the importance of hospitality when we experience it in local restaurants or businesses. Perhaps you've seen someone's FB post about a great place to eat or shop. That experience can make or break a future visit. Hospitality is a hallmark of a vital healthy church, too – truly welcoming people as Jesus welcomes us. This goes beyond being friendly, but really being intentional about making people feel welcome. Let's keep it up as we seek to make disciples for the transformation of the world!

HELP!!! Greeters and Coffee Hosts are needed for August and September. Please sign up on the back tower to serve. Thanks for your part in offering hospitality!

INTENTIONAL FAITH DEVELOPMENT

Vacation Bible School was a great week with lots of kids and many leaders. Our HS Youth Mission team had a great week serving in New York, and we'll hear more about their experiences. What a blessing!

We still have kids and adults who will go to Christian camps in August. Please pray for God's presence and grace to be real as they worship and learn with others.

Take time to get involved in great opportunities for growing in faith including Worship Brainstorming in August or our upcoming Worship Planning Retreat. Remember: We can't make disciples unless we are disciples.

Making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world...

The Endowment Fund for Theological Education in the Central Conferences (ENDOW F-TECC) is an opportunity to help in "Forming Trusted Leaders" in Europe, Africa, and the Philippines.

Pastor Mary is on a team of clergy and laity encouraging support for this important ministry. Funding for theological education is a real blessing for those who are pursuing ministry as a vocation. The generosity of others will enable our brothers and sisters who are called to ministry in areas outside of the U.S. to receive the training they need and desire. To learn more, go to <http://grand-rapids.michiganumc.org/the-generosity-of-others/>

Pastor Mary has more information available as well.

Tuesday morning Bible Study meets at 10:00 a.m. in the Lounge. We're starting the Gospel of Mark. Join us for deep study and lively conversation!

Our next session begins on Monday, August 6. GriefShare is designed to support those who have lost a loved one through death. It includes a video with practical information, an opportunity for group discussion, and a workbook for personal reflection. We have a team of facilitators who support the group. All are welcome. There is a one-time $15.00 fee for the workbook. Please share this with anyone you know who might be interested. More information is available at www.griefshare.org.

We welcome new members to this fun-loving group! Contact

Sheryl Thompson at (231)563-6417 or talk to Myke in the church office. Our next meeting is Wednesday, August 22 at 1:00 p.m. in the Library. We'll be packing boxes for our teachers!

 Members on the move...

Please keep the office informed when you're moving or changing phone numbers or e-mail.

Our support for Ross Park Elementary School is growing this fall! Our apple tree is up with lots of apples to pick!

Each apple has a dollar amount written on it, from $1 to $75. We're asking you to return whatever amount is on the apple you pick by Sunday, August 7. When all the apples are picked and amount on them returned, we'll have over $2,800 to support our 2018-2019 outreach to Ross Park Elementary.

We support teachers with school supplies that they'd usually have to purchase with their own money. We asked for a wish list before school was out for summer, and we had a great response! We're excited to help stock classrooms with needed supplies.

Ross Park Readers is an opportunity to serve teachers and kids in our local school by offering one hour (or more) during the week reading with kids or helping in a classroom. Please see Pastor Mary if you're interested in this great ministry!

Soup Pot Ministry is available to those who are in need of a meal during difficult times. If you know of someone who could use some love, please call Marie Kordecki at 231-740-5458 for information on how we can help. New cooks are always welcome! Even if you aren't a "cook," feel free to bring in take out (Lee's, Fazoli's, or pizza). It's such a gift to not have to worry about "what's for supper."

Giving Envelope Numbers: We're in the process of consolidating our giving envelope numbers in order to reduce the number of unused envelope booklets. You will still receive a quarterly and end of year statement. If your number is changed, a letter will be sent to you in notification of the new 2019 number. If this creates a problem for your accounting, please contact Gail Barefoot through the church office or FinSec@LakeHarborUMC.org as soon as possible. Also, if you currently do not have envelopes and would prefer to use a numbered one, please let us know and one will be assigned to you.

Thank you for your faithful giving to our regular offering and to many special giving opportunities! What a blessing to see a canoe filled with food for local kids, an apple tree being picked, a change jar with funds for a new church, M&M tubes with gas money for our mission team, and so much more! We are blessed to be a blessing, and your gifts bless others.
