All Church Worship Brainstorming for Lent and Easter

Monday, February 11, 2019

Bonnie and Larry Jorgenson's house 6:00 pm Potluck Dinner 7:00-9:00 pm Brainstorming for Worship

RSVP's and carpooling are helpful but not mandatory. Contact Larry or Bonnie at 777-2428 or Karen Booth at 798-8431, or sign up at church. Bonnie is making pulled pork. Bring a dish to pass and maybe a sweater as we will gather in the basement to take advantage of the larger space and big screen television.

March/April 2019 – Season of Lent and Easter

Series: "Shadow Jesus – Not Just the Jesus You Want, but the Jesus You Need" or "Shadow Savior - Not Just the Savior You Want, but the Savior You Need"

2019 theme: Love God and love your neighbor

Sometimes we're not very brave when it comes to faith. We don't want to ask the questions that keep coming up for us. We don't want to seem like we don't believe or that we struggle. And yet, sometimes "because the Bible says so" or "well, Jesus said it" isn't enough. We need to be honest about our wonderings and questions. What do we find difficult about Jesus? During his life and ministry and then into the week of his crucifixion, Jesus' closest followers and many who surrounded him struggled to understand and accept all that he said and did, and we might, too. But when we share our confusion, anger, fear, frustration, and surprise, we'll find even more reason to follow the One who comes to save.

Ideas for the series:

- Create a devotional for each week based on the topic.
- Send out a survey to our congregation via E-mail and Facebook with the questions:
 What's the most difficult or challenging thing that Jesus says or does?

What do you find most difficult about being a follower of Jesus?

Rev. Jennie Browne preaching

Scripture: Romans 8:31-39 (The Message)

³¹So, what do you think? With God on our side like this, how can we lose?

³²If God didn't hesitate to put everything on the line for us, embracing our condition and exposing himself to the worst by sending his own Son, is there anything else he wouldn't gladly and freely do for us? ³³And who would dare tangle with God by messing with one of God's chosen? ³⁴Who would dare even to point a finger? The One who died for us—who was raised to life for us!—is in the presence of God at this very moment sticking up for us. ³⁵Do you think anyone is going to be able to drive a wedge between us and Christ's love for us? There is no way! Not trouble, not hard times, not hatred, not hunger, not homelessness, not bullying threats, not backstabbing, not even the worst sins listed in Scripture:

³⁶They kill us in cold blood because they hate you.

We're sitting ducks; they pick us off one by one.

³⁷None of this fazes us because Jesus loves us. ³⁸I'm absolutely convinced that nothing—nothing living or dead, angelic or demonic, today or tomorrow, ³⁹high or low, thinkable or unthinkable— absolutely nothing can get between us and God's love because of the way that Jesus our Master has embraced us.

Sermon: "Death and Renovation"

Music: Community Choir - practice at 6:00 p.m.

March 10, 2019: "When Jesus Confuses You"

Scripture: Matthew 22: 15-22 (NIV) "Paying Taxes to Caesar"

¹⁵Then the Pharisees went out and laid plans to trap him in his words.

¹⁶They sent their disciples to him along with the Herodians. "Teacher," they said, "we know you are a man of integrity and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. You aren't swayed by men, because you pay no attention to who they are. ¹⁷Tell us then, what is your opinion? Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

¹⁸But Jesus, knowing their evil intent, said, "You hypocrites, why are you trying to trap me? ¹⁹Show me the coin used for paying the tax." They brought him a denarius, ²⁰and he asked them, "Whose portrait is this? And whose inscription?"

²¹"Caesar's," they replied.

Then he said to them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's."

²²When they heard this, they were amazed. So they left him and went away.

Synopsis: We want living our faith to be easy, but following Jesus isn't easy, especially as we encounter competing allegiances.

Felt need: To recognize that the answers to living our faith don't always come easily.

March 17, 2019: "When Jesus Angers You"

Scripture: Matthew 21: 12-17 (The Message) "Jesus at the Temple"

¹²Jesus went straight to the Temple and threw out everyone who had set up shop, buying and selling. He kicked over the tables of loan sharks and the stalls of dove merchants.

¹³He quoted this text:

My house was designated a house of prayer;

You have made it a hangout for thieves.

¹⁴Now there was room for the blind and crippled to get in. They came to Jesus and he healed them.

¹⁵When the religious leaders saw the outrageous things he was doing, and heard all the children running and shouting through the Temple, "Hosanna to David's Son!" they were up in arms and took him to task. ¹⁶"Do you hear what these children are saying?"

Jesus said, "Yes, I hear them. And haven't you read in God's Word, 'From the mouths of children and babies I'll furnish a place of praise'?"

¹⁷Fed up, Jesus turned on his heel and left the city for Bethany, where he spent the night.

Synopsis: Jesus wasn't a "quiet" presence among the people. He disrupted the status quo when it didn't honor God and people and consider our motives when it comes to worship and faith.

Felt need: To understand our need for true worship of God

Music: God the Sculptor of the Mountains (FWS 2060); The Heart of Worship; When Christ Went to the Temple by Carol Winfrey Gillette - LLANGLOFFAN 7.6.7.6 D ("Rejoice, Rejoice, Believers")

When Christ went to the Temple to worship God one day, He entered through the courtyard where anyone could pray. That court was for the nations--and all could enter in.

But Jesus found a market, a shameful robbers' den.

There, cattle, sheep and pigeons were sold for sacrifice, And moneychangers shouted of quality and price. Outsiders could not enter the inner courts for prayer. Their only place to worship was in the courtyard there.

When prayer gave way to profit, and pride closed many doors, The Lord cried out in anger and made a whip of cords. He shooed the sheep and cattle and scattered pigeons, too. God's house was for all people-- not for a chosen few.

O God, you love the nations and call us all to pray. Forgive us when our worship turns other folk away. As Christ, in loving protest, fought prejudice and pride, May we who follow Jesus now welcome all inside.

March 24, 2019: "When Jesus Disappoints You"

Scripture: Matthew 26: 14-16 (CEV) "Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus"

Judas Iscariot was one of the twelve disciples. He went to the chief priests ¹⁵ and asked, "How much will you give me if I help you arrest Jesus?" They paid Judas thirty silver coins, ¹⁶ and from then on he started looking for a good chance to betray Jesus.

Synopsis: Not everyone liked Jesus or thought he was doing what the promised Messiah should do. Judas and others expected a mighty warrior who would show power against the Romans, not someone who would suffer and die at their hand. Perhaps we still struggle to accept Jesus as he is - not as we want him to be.

Felt need: To confess our misplaced expectations of Jesus.

March 31, 2019: "When Jesus Scares You"

Rev. Susan Hagans preaching

Scripture: Matthew 27: 46-49 (CEV) "The Death of Jesus"

⁴⁶ Then about that time Jesus shouted, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, my God, why have you deserted me?"

⁴⁷Some of the people standing there heard Jesus and said, "He's calling for Elijah." One of them at once ran and grabbed a sponge. He soaked it in wine, then put it on a stick and held it up to Jesus.

⁴⁹Others said, "Wait! Let's see if Elijah will come and save him."

Scripture: Psalm 22(?) (CEV)

¹My God, my God, why have you deserted me? Why are you so far away? Won't you listen to my groans and come to my rescue? ²I cry out day and night, but you don't answer, and I can never rest.

³Yet you are the holy God, ruling from your throne and praised by Israel. ⁴Our ancestors trusted you, and you rescued them. ⁵When they cried out for help, you saved them, and you did not let them down when they depended on you.

⁶But I am merely a worm, far less than human, and I am hated and rejected by people everywhere. ⁷Everyone who sees me makes fun and sneers. They shake their heads, ⁸ and say, "Trust the Lord! If you are his favorite, let him protect you and keep you safe."

⁹You, Lord, brought me safely through birth, and you protected me when I was a baby at my mother's breast. ¹⁰From the day I was born, I have been in your care, and from the time of my birth, you have been my God.

¹¹Don't stay far off when I am in trouble with no one to help me. ¹²Enemies are all around like a herd of wild bulls. Powerful bulls from Bashan are everywhere. ¹³My enemies are like lions roaring and attacking with jaws open wide.

¹⁴I have no more strength than a few drops of water. All my bones are out of joint; my heart is like melted wax. ¹⁵My strength has dried up like a broken clay pot, and my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth. You, God, have left me to die in the dirt.

¹⁶Brutal enemies attack me like a pack of dogs, tearing at my hands and my feet.

¹⁷I can count all my bones, and my enemies just stare and sneer at me.

¹⁸ They took my clothes and gambled for them.

¹⁹Don't stay far away, Lord! My strength comes from you, so hurry and help. ²⁰Rescue me from enemy swords and save me from those dogs. ²¹Don't let lions eat me. You rescued me from the horns of wild bulls, ²² and when your people meet, I will praise you, Lord.

²³All who worship the Lord, now praise him! You belong to Jacob's family and to the people of Israel, so fear and honor the Lord! ²⁴The Lord doesn't hate or despise the helpless in all of their troubles. When I cried out, he listened and did not turn away. ²⁵When your people meet, you will fill my heart with your praises, Lord, and everyone will see me keep my promises to you. ²⁶The poor will eat and be full, and all who worship you will be thankful and live in hope.

²⁷Everyone on this earth will remember you, Lord. People all over the world will turn and worship you, ²⁸because you are in control, the ruler of all nations. ²⁹All who are rich and have more than enough will bow down to you, Lord. Even those who are dying and almost in the grave will come and bow down. ³⁰In the future, everyone will worship and learn about you, our Lord. ³¹People not yet born will be told, "The Lord has saved us!"

Rev. Jerry Hagans preaching

Scripture: Matthew 26: 31-35 (NIV) "Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial"

³¹Then Jesus told them, "This very night you will all fall away on account of me, for it is written:

""I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered."

³²But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee."

³³Peter replied, "Even if all fall away on account of you, I never will."

³⁴"I tell you the truth," Jesus answered, "this very night, before the rooster crows, you will disown me three times."

³⁵But Peter declared, "Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you." And all the other disciples said the same.

Synopsis: Jesus knows our humanity well and knows the reality of betrayal. He knows the depths of our hearts and our propensity for self-preservation. How do we open our hearts to God and seek forgiveness for turning away from Jesus in our midst?

April 14, 2019: Palm Sunday - "When Jesus Surprises You"

Scripture: Matthew 21: 1-11 (CEB) "The Triumphal Entry"

When they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus gave two disciples a task. ² He said to them, "Go into the village over there. As soon as you enter, you will find a donkey tied up and a colt with it. Untie them and bring them to me. ³ If anybody says anything to you, say that the Lord needs it." He sent them off right away. ⁴ Now this happened to fulfill what the prophet said, ⁵ Say to Daughter Zion, "Look, your king is coming to you, humble and riding on a donkey, and on a colt the donkey's offspring." ⁶ The disciples went and did just as Jesus had ordered them. ⁷ They brought the donkey and the colt and laid their clothes on them. Then he sat on them.

⁸ Now a large crowd spread their clothes on the road. Others cut palm branches off the trees and spread them on the road. ⁹ The crowds in front of him and behind him shouted, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!" ¹⁰ And when Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred up. "Who is this?" they asked. ¹¹ The crowds answered, "It's the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee."

Synopsis: Jesus' triumphal entry wasn't very "triumphant" at all, except for the fact that he was fulfilling the prophecy of Zechariah. Coming into Jerusalem on a donkey rather than a horse was a sign of who he was and how he would rule as King. Jesus continues to surprise us as "the man who would be king" coming in humility and peace.

April 18, 2019: Holy Thursday, "When Jesus Tells You What to Do" Meal at 5:45 p.m., Worship at 7:00 p.m., Prayer vigil follows

Scripture: Matthew 26: 17-30 (CEB) "Passover with the Disciples & Last Supper"

¹⁷On the first day of the Festival of Thin Bread, Jesus' disciples came to him and asked, "Where do you want us to prepare the Passover meal?"

¹⁸Jesus told them to go to a certain man in the city and tell him, "Our teacher says, 'My time has come! I want to eat the Passover meal with my disciples in your home.'" ¹⁹They did as Jesus told them and prepared the meal.

²⁰⁻²¹When Jesus was eating with his twelve disciples that evening, he said, "One of you will surely hand me over to my enemies."

²²The disciples were very sad, and each one said to Jesus, "Lord, you can't mean me!"

^{23£} He answered, "One of you men who has eaten with me from this dish will betray me. ²⁴The Son of Man will die, as the Scriptures say. But it's going to be terrible for the one who betrays me! That man would be better off if he had never been born."

²⁵Judas said, "Teacher, you surely don't mean me!"

"That's what you say!" Jesus replied. But later, Judas did betray him.

²⁶During the meal Jesus took some bread in his hands. He blessed the bread and broke it. Then he gave it to his disciples and said, "Take this and eat it. This is my body."

²⁷Jesus picked up a cup of wine and gave thanks to God. He then gave it to his disciples and said, "Take this and drink it. ²⁸ This is my blood, and with it God makes his agreement with you. It will be poured out, so that many people will have their sins forgiven. ²⁹From now on I am not going to drink any wine, until I drink new wine with you in my Father's kingdom." ³⁰Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

Scripture: John 13: 1-17 (NIV) "Jesus Washes His Disciples' Feet"

¹It was just before the Passover Feast. Jesus knew that the time had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he now showed them the full extent of his love.

²The evening meal was being served, and the devil had already prompted Judas Iscariot, son of Simon, to betray Jesus. ³Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; ⁴so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. ⁵After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

⁶He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

⁷Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand."

8"No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet."

Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me."

⁹"Then, Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!"

¹⁰Jesus answered, "A person who has had a bath needs only to wash his feet; his whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you." ¹¹For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean.

¹²When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. ¹³"You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and rightly so, for that is what I am. ¹⁴Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. ¹⁵I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. ¹⁶I tell you the truth, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. ¹⁷Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

April 21, 2019: Easter Sunday - "When Jesus Saves You"

Scripture: Matthew 28: 1-10 (CEV) "The Resurrection"

¹The Sabbath was over, and it was almost daybreak on Sunday when Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb.

²Suddenly a strong earthquake struck, and the Lord's angel came down from heaven. He rolled away the stone and sat on it. ³The angel looked as bright as lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. ⁴The guards shook from fear and fell down, as though they were dead.

⁵The angel said to the women, "Don't be afraid! I know you are looking for Jesus, who was nailed to a cross. ⁶He isn't here! God has raised him to life, just as Jesus said he would. Come, see the place where his body was lying. ⁷Now hurry! Tell his disciples that he has been raised to life and is on his way to Galilee. Go there, and you will see him. That is what I came to tell you."

⁸The women were frightened and yet very happy, as they hurried from the tomb and ran to tell his disciples. ⁹Suddenly Jesus met them and greeted them. They went near him, held on to his feet, and worshiped him. ¹⁰Then Jesus said, "Don't be afraid! Tell my followers to go to Galilee. They will see me there."

Synopsis: Jesus' crucifixion isn't the end of the story, and his saving work doesn't end at the cross. We don't just sit in awe at resurrection either. The joy of salvation is lived out when we go and tell (and show) others about it. The reality of resurrection isn't something to keep to ourselves, but something to share.

Scripture: Matthew 28: 16-20 (CEB) "The Great Commission"

¹⁶ Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus told them to go. ¹⁷ When they saw him, they worshipped him, but some doubted. ¹⁸ Jesus came near and spoke to them, "I've received all authority in heaven and on earth. ¹⁹ Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to obey everything that I've commanded you. Look, I myself will be with you every day until the end of this present age."
