

LAKE HARBOR UMC's Harbor Light

Welcoming all...Empowered by Christ...Sent forth to serve

Volume 19.1 January 2019

First, thank you for the Christmas cards that we received from many of you. Those greetings mean a lot to us. I also want to thank you for the love gift. We use it for family time and vacation over the next year, and it's a special blessing to us! We're grateful to serve God with you and excited for how the Holy Spirit is moving at Lake Harbor as we make disciples!

I'm deeply grateful that we serve God as a team at Lake Harbor. We have a dedicated and gifted group of staff and servant-leaders who support and enhance our mission and vision:

Our mission is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Our vision is that all people may experience the love of Jesus. Our call then, is Love: welcoming all, empowered by Christ, sent forth to serve.

We keep our mission and vision in mind as we plan to serve God and others in worship, fellowship, mission, and spiritual growth. In 2019, we'll also embrace a theme of "Love God and love neighbor." This is the commandment Jesus gives us, and we seek to follow it in all we do.

While it may seem simple, I wonder how different our lives would be - how different our interactions and conversations would be - if we continually held onto "Love God and love neighbor." Perhaps that's where the "transformation of the world" happens!

I invite you to join us for an informational meeting on Sun., January 13 between worship services. This is a time to share our yearly budget and share information about where we're heading together.

I'll also share briefly about the upcoming special session of General Conference in Feb. 2019. This session is focused on "A Way Forward" regarding issues of human sexuality. There's a lot of information available online, and I hope you'll take some time to read it and pray for our greater UMC as we engage in deeper conversation about human sexuality. These are personal and sensitive issues that affect us all. For more information and resources, go to <https://michiganumc.org/resources/a-way-forward/> on our Michigan Area Conference website.

Bishop Bard has offered conversations about "A Way Forward" around the state, and we're joining with other Muskegon-area UMCs on Tues., January 29 from 6:30-8:00 p.m. at Community UMC in North Muskegon to share information and try to answer questions. Again, this isn't designed to be a time for debate, but a time to explain the process and pray for our larger UMC.

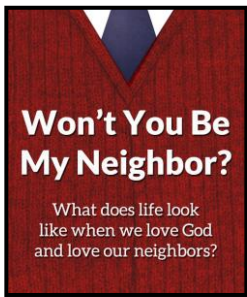

In the meantime, I offer words from theologian Howard Thurman that are important to me in the Christmas season (and all year long!):

The Work of Christmas

When the song of the angels is stilled,
when the star in the sky is gone,
when the kings and princes are home,
when the shepherds are back with their flocks,
the work of Christmas begins:
to find the lost,
to heal the broken,
to feed the hungry,
to release the prisoner,
to rebuild the nations,
to bring peace among the people,
to make music in the heart.

See you on Sunday,

Pastor Mary

“Won’t You Be My Neighbor? Learning from Mister Rogers”

Fred Rogers, “Mister Rogers,” is one of the most recognizable figures in children’s television. 2018 was the 50th anniversary of the first airing of “Mister Rogers’ Neighborhood,” which brought a renewed interest in his work and his life. Rogers was also a professing Christian and an ordained Presbyterian pastor. His faith showed through his commitment to teaching and caring for children.

As we live into the season of Epiphany, when we celebrate that Jesus is born to be Savior to all and to show God’s love to everyone, how does Mister Rogers challenge us to hear that message? As we enter a New Year and new worship theme “Love God and love neighbor,” how can looking at Scripture, with the help of Mister Rogers, guide us in our walk as disciples of Jesus Christ?

January 6, 2019: “Loving Ourselves, Loving Our Neighbor”

Scripture: I Corinthians 13: 1-13; Matthew 22: 36-40

Synopsis: We are created in the image of God and are of sacred worth. When Jesus talks of loving God and loving our neighbor as we love ourselves, he calls us to claim the truth of God’s love for us personally. How do we allow it to shape our self-image and our interactions with others?

January 13, 2019: “Please Won’t You Be My Neighbor?”

Scripture: Romans 15: 1-17; Matthew 5: 43-48

Synopsis: This is an invitation into a relationships of mutual caring – and a tough sell in today’s world. We’ve become more insular and isolated, so do we really mean it? Now we live more in neighborhoods than we do with neighbors, but the call is still to care for one another – even those we would call our enemies.

January 20, 2019: “In Some Ways We Are Different”

Scripture: Micah 6: 6-8; I Corinthians 12: 12-27

Synopsis: Diversity is a vital part of the Body of Christ and of our community and world. Mister Rogers was prophetic and brave in how he lifted up others. How do we celebrate our uniqueness as beloved children of God and see justice for those who are oppressed?

January 27, 2019: “Who Is My Neighbor? Or Look for the Helpers”

Scripture: Luke 10: 25-37

Synopsis: Jesus tells us that a neighbor is anyone in need. He calls us to know that deep down so we can respond as a neighbor. How are we living out the call to be a helper where we are?

Thanks for your support of the Prison Ministry Angel Tree. This year, we provided 22 gifts for children whose parent is incarcerated. Thanks to all who helped share God's love this Christmas.

Radical Hospitality

Every time we host guests from Family Promise, I think about hospitality. I'm grateful for the connections that form and relationships that are built. I'm also aware of how God calls us to see Christ in the people around us. I saw Christ in the family who was here – in the little girl who was so excited to play a game and in the young boy who was glad for new friends. It's not only about how we can share the love of Christ, but also about how we see God in new ways. As we enter into a new year, remember the message of Hebrews 13:2 - Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it.

What Made My Christmas

by Jeff Verry, Congregational Care Coordinator

I want to take a brief moment and share two highlights that really made my Christmas this year. One was standing in a dining hall in an Alzheimer's unit at a nursing home. Wearing Santa hats with Teresa and Lillian, we were singing our rendition of "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer," quite badly. The entire dining room started singing and clapping along. The power of music and the magic of the moment pierced the fog of faded memories like a light overcoming the darkness.

A second highlight was a Thursday afternoon. I swung by the church to pick up any of the Christmas care packages the MNO put together that had not been delivered yet. It is always a joy to pick up those leftover. "There aren't any left," Pastor Mary said. I got a lump in my throat. We have such a beautiful church and caring congregation! So many do so much, in so many ways.

As we enter 2019, I am humbled and inspired by what God has done through our community and filled with expectation at what God will do in the coming year!

Fellowship Opportunities

Loving and kind hearts begin in the home. Thank you for reinforcing these wonderful qualities, and also showing our children that we all are the hands and feet of Jesus.

Special thanks to Jill McMahon and Jen Cooper for their help in preparing costumes for our Christmas Eve "pick up pageant!" What a blessing for every child to be able to participate in remembering the story of Jesus' birth!

The Trustees would like to have a Work Party on Saturday, Jan. 5 from 9:00-11:00 a.m. to clean all of the tables and chairs before we put them back on refurbished carts. Because of this, we'll be adding additional storage shelves in the back area. Please, we could use your help!
