November 2019 series: “Why?”

Most of us struggle with the question of “why?” at one time or another. Whether it’s the pain of death, our own life situation or someone else close to us, whether it’s a overwhelming global problems like hunger and violence, or whether it’s the reality that some people have faced hardship that we cannot imagine, we want to know why things happen the way they do. And our faith plays a role, too. We’re forced to confront what we believe about God, what is true about God, and how that fits together or doesn’t. This series will challenge us to ask the hard questions and hopefully find some answers.

Resources:

- Why? Making Sense of God’s Will by Adam Hamilton (2011)

The four big questions that Adam Hamilton seeks to answer:

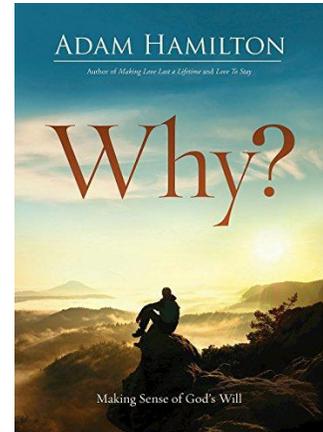

1. Why do the innocent suffer?
2. Why do my prayers go unanswered?
3. What can’t I see God’s will for my life?
4. Why God’s love prevails?

He also makes a distinction between God’s prescriptive will and God’s permissive will - and says that seeking God’s will is more about how we make decisions than the decisions we make. Related article:

- Everything Happens for a Reason and Other Lies I’ve Loved by Kate Bowler (2018)
- Bowler is a scholar who specializes in the prosperity gospel whose central claim is that God will give you your heart’s desires. When she’s diagnosed with advanced colon cancer at 35, her questions are:

1. Why?
2. God, are you here?

3. What does this suffering mean?

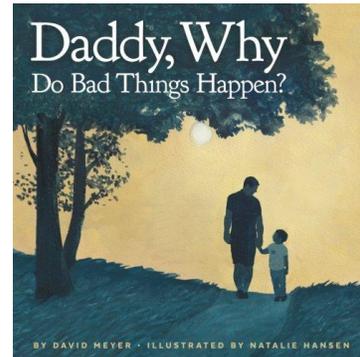

- The Will of God by Leslie Weatherhead (1944)

Weatherhead draws the distinction between the following:

1. Intentional will of God – God’s ideal plan for humankind
2. Circumstantial will of God - God’s plan within certain circumstances
3. Ultimate will of God - God’s final realization of God’s purposes

The trouble is that we use the phrase “the will of God” to cover all three.

- When Bad Things Happen to Good People by Rabbi Harold Kushner (1981)
- Daddy, Why Do Bad Things Happen? By David Meyer. This book explores the topics of hardship, struggle, and loss. Children learn that just beyond life's challenges are silver linings, and when understood correctly, difficulties give us strength, perspective, and awareness of others' needs. November 3, 2019: “God and Suffering”

21st Sunday after Pentecost

All Saints Day, Daylight Savings Time ends

Scripture: Job 1: 20-22, 42: 1-8 (Contemporary English Version)

^{1:20}When Job heard this, he tore his clothes and shaved his head because of his great sorrow. He knelt on the ground, then worshiped God ²¹ and said: “We bring nothing at birth; we take nothing with us at death. The Lord alone gives and takes. Praise the name of the Lord!”

²²In spite of everything, Job did not sin or accuse God of doing wrong.

^{42:1}Job said: ²No one can oppose you, because you have the power to do what you want. ³ You asked why I talk so much when I know so little. I have talked about things that are far beyond my understanding. ⁴ You told me to listen and answer your questions. ⁵I heard about you from others; now I have seen you with my own eyes. ⁶That’s why I hate myself and sit here in dust and ashes to show my sorrow.

The Lord Corrects Job’s Friends

⁷The Lord said to Eliphaz: What my servant Job has said about me is true, but I am angry at you and your two friends for not telling the truth. ⁸So I want you to go over to Job and offer seven bulls and seven goats on an altar as a sacrifice to please me. After this, Job will pray, and I will agree not to punish you for your foolishness.

Scripture: John 11: 32-37 (New Living Translation)

³²When Mary arrived and saw Jesus, she fell at his feet and said, “Lord, if only you had been here, my brother would not have died.”

³³When Jesus saw her weeping and saw the other people wailing with her, a deep anger welled up within him, and he was deeply troubled. ³⁴“Where have you put him?” he asked them.

They told him, “Lord, come and see.” ³⁵Then Jesus wept. ³⁶The people who were standing nearby said, “See how much he loved him!” ³⁷But some said, “This man healed a blind man. Couldn’t he have kept Lazarus from dying?”

Synopsis: Suffering is a human experience and always raises spiritual questions. From Job to Jesus, grief is a touch point of suffering and time when we ask “Why?” How do we view suffering for what it is - not God’s doing - but a part of being human and living life with the promise of God’s presence and care?

Felt need: To better understand why there’s suffering and what God’s role is and isn’t in suffering

- “Broken Praise: The Story.” Length: 6:47. Cost: $19.98. Telling the story of Job with music and video, “Broken Praise,” shows how faith can be tested when we experience loss, or feel that injustice has been imposed upon us. Job's faith in God was unfaltering, even when Satan tried to break him by taking everything he owned and loved.

- "Mourning Booth." Length: 4:49. Cost: $16.99. There is a season in everyone's life of walking through the valley. Even though it is in our nature as human beings to want to fix things, sometimes all that is needed is our presence.

- "If God is Good Then Why Is There Suffering?" Length: 0:59. Cost: $20.00. If God is good, then why does He allow suffering in this world? This is a high quality and thought provoking video of a genuine Christian wrestling with this intense question.

November 10, 2019: "Unanswered Prayers"

22nd Sunday after Pentecost

Charge Conference at 4:00 p.m.

Scripture: Matthew 21: 18-22 (Common English Bible) "Cursing the Fig Tree"

¹⁸Early in the morning as Jesus was returning to the city, he was hungry. ¹⁹He saw a fig tree along the road, but when he came to it, he found nothing except leaves. Then he said to it, "You'll never again bear fruit!" The fig tree dried up at once.

²⁰When the disciples saw it, they were amazed. "How did the fig tree dry up so fast?" they asked.

²¹Jesus responded, "I assure you that if you have faith and don't doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree. You will even say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the lake.' And it will happen. ²²If you have faith, you will receive whatever you pray for."

Scripture: Psalm 22 (The Message) This is only the first eight of 31 verses.

¹God, God...my God! Why did you dump me miles from nowhere? ²Doubled up with pain, I call to God all the day long. No answer. Nothing. I keep at it all night, tossing and turning.

³And you! Are you indifferent, above it all, leaning back on the cushions of Israel's praise? ⁴We know you were there for our parents: ⁵they cried for your help and you gave it; they trusted and lived a good life.

⁶And here I am, a nothing—an earthworm, something to step on, to squash. ⁷Everyone pokes fun at me; they make faces at me, they shake their heads: ⁸"Let's see how God handles this one; since God likes him so much, let him help him!" ⁹And to think you were midwife at my birth, setting me at my mother's breasts!

Scripture: John 15: 1-8 (The Message) "Jesus Comforts His Disciples"

¹"Don't let this throw you. You trust God, don't you? Trust me.

²There is plenty of room for you in my Father's home. If that weren't so, would I have told you that I'm on my way to get a room ready for you? ³And if I'm on my way to get your room ready, I'll come back and get you so you can live where I live. ⁴And you already know the road I'm taking."

⁵Thomas said, “Master, we have no idea where you’re going. How do you expect us to know the road?”

⁶Jesus said, “I am the Road, also the Truth, also the Life. No one gets to the Father apart from me. ⁷If you really knew me, you would know my Father as well. From now on, you do know him. You’ve even seen him!”

⁸Philip said, “Master, show us the Father; then we’ll be content.”

Scripture: Luke 22: 39-46 (New Living Translation) “Jesus Prays on the Mount of Olives”

¹“Don’t let this throw you. You trust God, don’t you? Trust me.

²There is plenty of room for you in my Father’s home. If that weren’t so, would I have told you that I’m on my way to get a room ready for you? ³And if I’m on my way to get your room ready, I’ll come back and get you so you can live where I live. ⁴And you already know the road I’m taking.”

⁵Thomas said, “Master, we have no idea where you’re going. How do you expect us to know the road?”

⁶Jesus said, “I am the Road, also the Truth, also the Life. No one gets to the Father apart from me. ⁷If you really knew me, you would know my Father as well. From now on, you do know him. You’ve even seen him!”

⁸Philip said, “Master, show us the Father; then we’ll be content.”

Synopsis: Prayer is not an exercise in getting what we want, but in nurturing a relationship with God through both speaking and listening. We struggle when God doesn’t answer prayers in the way we assume is best for us, but that doesn’t mean God isn’t attentive and faithful.

Felt need: To seek God in prayer as a way to build relationship with God - not as a way to get what we want

November 17, 2019: “God’s Will for Your Life”

23rd Sunday after Pentecost

Scripture: Colossians 1: 9-14 (Common English Bible)

⁹Because of this, since the day we heard about you, we haven’t stopped praying for you and asking for you to be filled with the knowledge of God’s will, with all wisdom and spiritual understanding. ¹⁰We’re praying this so that you can live lives that are worthy of the Lord and pleasing to him in every way: by producing fruit in every good work and growing in the knowledge of God; ¹¹by being strengthened through his glorious might so that you endure everything and have patience; ¹² and by giving thanks with joy to the Father. He made it so you could take part in the inheritance, in light granted to God's holy people. ¹³ He rescued us from the control of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of the Son he loves. ¹⁴ He set us free through the Son and forgave our sins.

Scripture: Romans 12: 1-2 (Contemporary English Version) "Living Sacrifices"

¹Dear friends, God is good. So I beg you to offer your bodies to him as a living sacrifice, pure and pleasing. That's the most sensible way to serve God.

²Don't be like the people of this world, but let God change the way you think. Then you will know how to do everything that is good and pleasing to him.

Scripture: Matthew 6: 7-13 (Today's New International Version) "Prayer"

⁷And when you pray, do not keep on babbling like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words.

⁸Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

⁹"This, then, is how you should pray: "'Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, ¹⁰your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. ¹¹Give us today our daily bread. ¹²And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. ¹³And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.'

Scripture: ref. Psalm 139 (New International Version) This is only the first of 24 verses.

¹O LORD, you have searched me and you know me.....

Synopsis: We pray "Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done" often, but how do we understand our place in it? Looking at the bigger and longer story of God's love and redemption, we are a part of that story as we journey with God and pay attention to God's prompting in our lives.

November 24, 2019: "Love Wins"

Christ the King/Reign of Christ Sunday

Sunday before Thanksgiving, Hanging of the Greens

Scripture: Psalm 23 (The Message)

God, my shepherd! I don't need a thing. ²You have bedded me down in lush meadows, you find me quiet pools to drink from.

³True to your word, you let me catch my breath and send me in the right direction. ⁴Even when the way goes through Death Valley, I'm not afraid when you walk at my side. Your trusty shepherd's crook makes me feel secure.

⁵You serve me a six-course dinner right in front of my enemies. You revive my drooping head; my cup brims with blessing. ⁶Your beauty and love chase after me every day of my life. I'm back home in the house of God for the rest of my life.

Scripture: Romans 8: 26-28, 31-32, 35, 37-39 (Common English Bible)

²⁶In the same way, the Spirit comes to help our weakness. We don't know what we should pray, but the Spirit himself pleads our case with unexpressed groans. ²⁷The one who searches hearts knows how the Spirit thinks, because he pleads for the saints, consistent with God's will. ²⁸We know that God works all things together for good for the ones who love God, for those who are called according to his purpose.

God's Love

³¹So what are we going to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? ³²He didn't spare his own Son but gave him up for us all. Won't he also freely give us all things with him?

³⁵Who will separate us from Christ's love? Will we be separated by trouble, or distress, or harassment, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

³⁷But in all these things we win a sweeping victory through the one who loved us. ³⁸I'm convinced that nothing can separate us from God's love in Christ Jesus our Lord: not death or life, not angels or rulers, not present things or future things, not powers ³⁹or height or depth, or any other thing that is created.

Scripture: II Corinthians 4:16-5:1 (Contemporary English Version) "Treasure in Clay Jars"

¹God has been kind enough to trust us with this work. That's why we never give up.

²We don't do shameful things that must be kept secret. And we don't try to fool anyone or twist God's message around. God is our witness that we speak only the truth, so others will be sure that we can be trusted. ³If there is anything hidden about our message, it is hidden only to someone who is lost.

⁴The god who rules this world has blinded the minds of unbelievers. They cannot see the light, which is the good news about our glorious Christ, who shows what God is like. ⁵We are not preaching about ourselves. Our message is that Jesus Christ is Lord. He also sent us to be your servants. ⁶The Scriptures say, "God commanded light to shine in the dark." Now God is shining in our hearts to let you know that his glory is seen in Jesus Christ.

⁷We are like clay jars in which this treasure is stored. The real power comes from God and not from us. ⁸We often suffer, but we are never crushed. Even when we don't know what to do, we never give up. ⁹In times of trouble, God is with us, and when we are knocked down, we get up again. ¹⁰⁻¹¹We face death every day because of Jesus. Our bodies show what his death was like, so that his life can also be seen in us. ¹²This means that death is working in us, but life is working in you.

¹³In the Scriptures it says, "I spoke because I had faith." We have that same kind of faith. So we speak ¹⁴because we know that God raised the Lord Jesus to life. And just as God raised Jesus, he will also raise us to life. Then he will bring us into his presence together with you. ¹⁵All of this has been done for you, so that more and more people will know how kind God is and will praise and honor him.

Faith in the Lord

¹⁶We never give up. Our bodies are gradually dying, but we ourselves are being made stronger each day. ¹⁷These little troubles are getting us ready for an eternal glory that will make all our troubles seem like nothing. ¹⁸Things that are seen don't last forever, but things that are not seen are eternal. That's why we keep our minds on the things that cannot be seen.

5:1 Our bodies are like tents that we live in here on earth. But when these tents are destroyed, we know that God will give each of us a place to live. These homes will not be buildings that someone has made, but they are in heaven and will last forever.

Scripture: Revelation 21: 1-7 (Common English Bible) “The New Jerusalem”

21:1 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ²I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. ³I heard a loud voice from the throne say, “Look! God’s dwelling is here with humankind. He will dwell with them, and they will be his peoples. God himself will be with them as their God. ⁴He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more. There will be no mourning, crying, or pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.” ⁵Then the one seated on the throne said, “Look! I’m making all things new.” He also said, “Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.” ⁶Then he said to me, “All is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will freely give water from the life-giving spring. ⁷Those who emerge victorious will inherit these things. I will be their God, and they will be my sons and daughters.

Synopsis: God’s presence with us in sorrow and joy and God’s work through us to bring healing and hope are a promise for us to claim and a witness to God’s victory over suffering and death. Even our suffering can be transformed when we offer it to God just as Jesus’ death was transformed into the Good News of God’s love for the world.

Felt need: To trust in God’s ultimate victory over suffering and death through sacrificial love
